1 INTRODUCTION

In this game each player represents the diplomats from each major European power during the months that preceded World War One. Starting at 1914, January. The game is played by monthly turns and the end is determined randomly starting from 1914, July up to September (7 to 9 turns). Each game lasts around 2 hours. Quoting the author, Jim Dunnigan, each player must compete against each other to achieve each nation's national objectives. This is a Diplomatic game, no movement troops or armed combats takes place, only diplomatic "fights" at Embassies. Many thanks to Gus Molz; without his brilliant contribution this new version wouldn't exist...

2 GAME PARTS

2.1 THE MAP BOARD

The map board depicts Europe in 1913/1914. Eleven country zones (United Kingdom, France, Germany, Austria-Hungary, Italy, Russia, Ottoman Empire (Turkey), Serbia, Romania, Bulgaria and Greece) are represented by their 1914 flags; there are also zones for Africa and the Far East. Players place diplomatic factors on these zones during the game. The Map provides also spaces for the chosen Diplomatic Cards by the players each turn (Diplomatic Actions), a Turn Track a Victory Points Track and a Diplomatic Points Track.

2.2 THE PLAYING PIECES

- 39 markers of Diplomatic Points (13 of 1DP, and 24 of 2DPs) for each country. Diplomatic points' markers function like money, they are interchangeable. DP markers have different shapes for each country. United Kingdom are red, French blue, German black, Austrian-Hungarian yellow, Russian dark green, Italian light green and Turkish light red. DF markers of one single point are slightly smaller and are not bordered to note that they do not give treaty rights. Note: markers are not limited, if an improbable shortage arrives during the game, players should improvise some adequate annotation.

Diplomatic Points Markers

- Each Country has a marker for victory points with its flag to place at the Victory Points Track.

- There is a Turn track marker to use on the map board turn track:

- 7 cards with country flags used to determine randomly the turn order.

- 13 cards of Diplomatic Actions for each Country

- 40 cards of Extra Diplomatic Actions.
- 7 Player Aid cards with the Turn phases chart and the national objectives for all countries (not shown).
- A Setup Card

3.SET UP

- Place the map board on the table.
- Place the turn marker on January 1914 of the turn track table.
- Assign randomly the countries for each player according to their number (see below).
- Place the Countries' Victory Points markers on the zero case of the VP track.
- Distribute initial Diplomatic Points for all Countries on the Map board according to the setup card.
- Pick the Turn Order cards, shuffle and place them face down at the Turn Order Deck on the Map Board.
- Give to each player the 13 Diplomatic Actions' cards for each country they have and their Diplomatic points markers that they will place on the table in front of them.
- Each player picks secretly 2 Extra Diplomatic action cards from the 4 types available. The remaining Extra Diplomatic cards are shuffled and placed face down besides the map board.

Initial Setup
	UK	Fra	Ger	Rus	AustHung	Ita	Tur
United Kingdom		2	1	1		1

5. VICTORY CONDITIONS

NATIONAL OBJECTIVES: Number of VPs when having Treaty Rights with:
	UK	Fra	Ger	Rus	AustH ung	Ita	Tur
United Kingdom		2	1	1		1
France	1			1	1	2	1
Germany	1			1	2		2
Austria-Hungary			2	1		1	2
Russia	1	2	1		1
Italy	1	1	1		2		1
Serbia		1		2	2	1
Romania		1	1	2	1	1
Bulgaria			2	1	1		1
Greece	1	1				2	2
Turkey	2		2		1	1
Africa	2	2	1			2	1
Far East	2	1		2			1

Note: if a country has exclusive treaty rights on a zone (i.e. no other Country has treaty rights on that zone), its VPs are doubled (exception: if only one or two countries have exclusive rights in Africa, their VPs are also doubled).

Victory points are counted at the end of game turns March 1914, June 1914 and at the end-game turn.

A country is considered to have Treaty Rights with another Country / Zone if it has 2 or more Diplomatic Points on that Country zone.

If a country has exclusive treaty rights on a zone (i.e. no other Country has treaty rights on that zone), its VPs are doubled (exception: if only one or two countries have exclusive rights in Africa, their VPs are also doubled).

Victory Points are cumulative throughout the 3 counting phases. At the game end, the final third counting is doubled.

At the end of the game players add the VPs of each Country they control and multiply the final sum by the blue factor numbers on the table of 4. NUMBER OF PLAYERS (see above). The player who has more Victory Points (VPs) wins the game.

There are no Tie-Breakers, if two or more players finish the game tied with equal number of VPs, they win together.

6. GAME LENGTH AND TURN PHASES

The game lasts 7 to 9 turns, each turn represents a month, from January 1914 until July or September 1914 (the end turn is decided randomly at the start of each turn, beginning in July by a single dice roll (see below)).

Turn Track
Jan 1914 Diplomacy
Feb 1914
Mar 1914 Check VPs
Apr 1914 Diplomacy
May 1914
Jun 1914 Check VPs
Jul 1914 Game ends 1,2. Diplomacy
Aug 1914 Game ends 1,2,3,4.
Sep 1914 Game end

Each turn has 3 to 6 phases:

TURN PHASES
1. Determination of game end	Jul 1914 & next Turns
2 Diplomacy	Jan 1914, April 1914, Jul 1914
3 Chose Countries where to make Actions	All Turns
4 Turn order Check / Diplomatic Actions	All Turns
5 Determination of Victory points	Mar14, ,Jun14, end-game turn
6. Advance the Turn Marker	All Turns

Phase 1 - Determination of game end (July 1914, Aug 1914, September 1914)

This phase only happens in July 1914 and subsequent eventual turns; the turn track on the map board signals this action. A single die is rolled. The game ends at the end of this particular turn (end of phase 6) with the following results:

Turn:	Die roll required to end game at the end of the turn:
July 1914	1 or 2
Aug 1914	1,2,3,4
Sep 1914	Game automatically ends this turn

Phase 2 - Diplomacy (Jan 1914, April 1914 and July 1914)

During January 1914, April 1914 and July 1914 players have up to 10 minutes to conduct diplomacy; they can leave the room to engage in conversations; players may try to overhear ongoing conversations among other players. There are no binding agreements. There is no need to spend 10 minutes in this phase, it is only the upper limit of time allowed.

During other phases / turns players are allowed to engage in brief agreements but without leaving their places at the table and without delaying the game.

Phase 3 - Chose Countries where to make Actions

Each player choses secretly 3 Diplomatic Action Cards for each Country he controls and places them face down at the Country's Diplomatic Action Zone on the Map board.

Phase 4 - Turn Order Check / Diplomatic Actions

- a) Pick the top most card from the Turn Order Deck and place it face up at the top case of the turn order track. The card indicates the Country that will be doing first its actions (named the Active Country).
- b) The Diplomatic cards of the active Country that were placed at its diplomatic Actions zone on the Map board are now revealed (flipped face-up), showing in which Country zones that country will have actions this turn.
- c) For each Country zone revealed, the active player choses one action among the following options:
 1. Place or add 1 point of Diplomatic Factor.
 2. Conduct a Diplomatic Attack.
 3. Pick one Extra Diplomatic Action Card from the top of the Deck (only once per turn).
 4. Do nothing.
- d) Extra Diplomatic Action. The active player may play one Extra Diplomatic Action Card from the ones he has on his hand. He cannot have more than 2 cards in his hand at all times.
- e) Reaction Phase. All other players, in clockwise order (starting with the player that is on the left of the active player and finishing with the active player) may play and execute one extra diplomatic action card, providing that at least one action is executed on a zone that the active player activated during his turn. Note: if any other player opts to play a Diplomatic Extra Action Card, then the active player, if he hasn't made before an Extra Diplomatic Action, may also react and play a Diplomatic Extra Action Card.

- f) After the Active Country finishes its actions, pick a second card from the top of the Turn Order Deck and place it face up at the 2nd topmost case of the turn order track and repeat the actions b) and c).

The above procedures are repeated until all the participating countries have done their actions for the turn. After this phase is finished reshuffle all the Turn Order Cards and place them again face down at the turn order Deck. All players recover to their hands the Diplomatic Actions Cards they have played this turn.

Phase 5: Determination of Victory points (March 1914, June 1914 and game end Turn)

This phase only happens during the following turns: March 1914, June 1914 and game end turn (this is noted at the turn track).

Victory Points are counted according to the National Objectives Chart (see above, Victory Conditions).

If a country has exclusive treaty rights on a zone (i.e. no other Country has treaty rights on that zone), its VPs are doubled (exception: if only one or two countries have exclusive rights in Africa, their VPs are also doubled).

The total VPs for each Country at the game end Turn are doubled.

Also, at the end of the game, if there are Players with a different number of Countries, the total victory points of each player are multiplied by a factor according to the number of Countries they have (See 4. Number of Players).

Phase 6 Advance the Turn Marker Advance the turn marker by one case at the turn order track

7. DIPLOMATIC ATTACKS

If a Player decides to make 1 Diplomatic attack on a Country Zone he must have at least 1 Diplomatic point on that zone.

During an attack a Country starts by removing 1 Diplomatic point of another Country that is on the same Country Zone and then it may remove 1 or more points of Diplomatic Factors (DPs) of their own and the same number of DPs from another Countries.

A player may opt to remove DPs from different Countries in the same zone (providing, of course that he removes the same number of his own Country after the second removal of enemy DPs).

A player may opt to remove all his own DPs on that Country Zone to eliminate an equivalent number of other Countries' DPs.

A Player may opt to "suicide" all his DPs on that Country zone without removing other countries DFs (this could be made to comply with previous agreements with other players).

8. OBTAINING TREATY RIGHTS

Unlike the previous versions of this game there are no Treaty Markers; by definition, a Country has a treaty with another country if it has 2 or more Diplomatic points on that Country zone. To make it clear on the Map board, the 1 point DP markers are smaller than the others.

If a Country reduces its Diplomatic Points to only one point in a Zone, it ceases to have Treaty rights with that zone / Country.

9. Diplomatic Extra Actions

During the game each Country starts with two different Diplomatic Extra Action Cards that its player chooses during setup.

There are 4 extra actions:

- a) Increased Diplomatic Budget: a country can place two additional Diplomatic Points distributed on any two regions that the player chooses.

- b) Extra Diplomatic Attack: a Country can conduct an extra-attack on any region where it has Diplomatic Points.
- c) Assassination: a Country may remove two Diplomatic Points from a single other Country on any Country Zone of the Map Board where it has at least one Diplomatic point.
- d) Foreign Office Reorganization: a Country may move up to two Diplomatic points from any zone(s) on the Map Board to any other zone(s).

At setup, after all players have chosen 2 Diplomatic Extra Action Cards for their Countries, all the remaining Diplomatic Extra Action Cards are shuffled and placed face down as a Deck besides the Map Board.

A player can earn additional Diplomatic Extra Action Cards by skipping one action in a zone he has chosen during phase 4 (Diplomatic Actions) picking the topmost card from the Deck. He cannot have more than 2 Diplomatic Extra Action Cards in his hand; if he chooses a third card he must immediately discard one.

One Diplomatic Extra Action Card may be played and executed:

- a) During its diplomatic action phase, after all the other diplomatic actions have been made.
- b) As a "reaction" after an active player has finished its Diplomatic actions. If the active player hasn't played before a Diplomatic Extra Action Card and another player has played a reaction card, he may also "react".

If the Diplomatic Extra Action Cards' Deck is exhausted all discarded cards are reshuffled to make a new Deck.

9. OPTIONAL RULES:

Diplomatic Frenzy after the Sarajevo Murder: During the last turn all players are entitled to make one extra action at the Countries' zones they have chosen in reverse turn order (the first actions are done according to the regular rules, randomly deciding the order; then all the countries are entitled to make extra actions in reverse order.

During this second action phase players are still entitled to play Diplomatic extra-action Cards as per the normal rules.

Relative Winning and Ties: To win the game a player needs to have three Victory points more than the 2nd player, otherwise there's a tie. This favors the possibility of players to form an alliance and pre-arrange a tied winning.

Diceless OWW1 with Dice: The purpose of this new Rules' Version was to make a simpler and faster game without the original randomness. If players do lack the dice throwing, they can always play according to the earlier versions. Anyway they can add some simple rules to get a bit of randomness using these same rules: during a Diplomatic Attack the active player first decides how many DPs he is spending in the attack and the contry(ies) he is attacking, then he rolls 1 D6 for each country attacked: with the result of 1 or 2, the attacker (the active country) removes first 1 DP and then the combat proceeds normally, with the result of 3 or 4, the attack is made without changes to the normal rules; with a result of 5,6, the Defender removes 1 extra DP point prior to the attack. You can even add more randomness: 1: Attacker removes 2 DPs, 2: Attacker removes 1 DP, 3-4, no country removes DPs prior to the attack; 5: Defender removes 1 DP; 6: Defender removes 2 DPs. These optional rules may add some time to the game length but may introduce some more excitement - it's up to you to decide.

Diplomacy at all costs: This game is designed to be fast-paced; however, if players agree on spending an agreeable day dedicated to playing it, they can have diplomacy periods at the start of all turns, of about 30 minutes each. This will of course increase the game-length around 3 to 4 and half hours. But the experience will decidedly be more immersive.

REVISION EDITION DESIGNER'S NOTES

During 2020 I've found this precious gem of a game from Jim Dunnigan browsing through Boardgamegeek. I made at that time a 7 player version that I've tested with friends; the game had potential but we had some issues with the Diplomatic attack table, being sometimes too harsh. I have published at that time a print and play version at BGG and made a Vassal Module but the interest faded away. Then, some weeks ago (November 2023), Gus Molz posted a forum at Boardgamegeek with a variant called "Hidden Daggers • Diplomatic struggle without dice"; his suggestion struck me as a brilliant idea that could solve all the issues that we have faced and, at the same time, making the game much simpler and faster, without removing its intrinsic and interesting complexity. I cannot thank him enough and this new version simply wouldn't exist without his ideas.

This game has some of the potentialities that can be found at the classic "Diplomacy" from Allan B. Calhamer but it can be played in less than two hours. I'm surprised that is so less known. Avalon Hill published, from the same author, Origins of World War Two in 1971, but the diplomatic activity previous to world war one is far richer and complex than it was in 1939. All wars are stupid, but the stupidest of them all was, unquestionably, World War I; it is however fascinating all the diplomatic activities and blunders that preceded the onset of the "Great War". This revision is my "homage" to all the victims of this war.

I read all the (few) forums about the game at Boardgamegeek and I want to acknowledge and thank all the participants from many ideas that I have "stolen" from them (namely random orders, the random ending of the game, the possibility of adding more players, turn, the critics about the "dryness" of the original Diplomatic Attacks table and thoughts about national objectives).

The game was originally devised for 5 players but I wanted the possibility to adapt it for 7 players including two "minor" powers from WW1 which I'm very fond of: Turkey and Italy.

I've made some minor adaptations from the original game whose original rules can be found at boardgamegeek (<https://boardgamegeek.com/boardgame/17967/origins-world-war-i>).

The original game has 10 fixed turns; I prefer instead to have an initial setup, where countries start with some Diplomatic points distributed on the Map Board and a randomized game end, with only 7 to 9 turns. The players get to know that the game is going to end but only at the start of the last turn.

As I've adapted the game for 7 instead of 5 players I needed also to change the national objectives for each country. I've found the "exclusive treaty rights" condition too harsh to get any points so I've decided to add some points even if the country doesn't attain the "exclusive" goals. I've changed the conditions to Germany and France that could get some points for avoiding respectively United Kingdom and Germany to have treaty rights from any other nation, which I found almost impossible; with this revision they only need to avoid treaty rights from their enemies with major countries (defined as the countries controlled by players). I've also added some points for some countries to have treaty rights from France as this was a country that was seldom used with the original rules. Adding Italy and Turkey to the game gave me the opportunity to refine things around the Balkans also.

In this edition I wanted to incentive the use of Diplomacy meetings. In order not to drag on, I've limited to ten minutes each diplomatic round, only happening during 3 turns; in this way 30 minutes' maximum are spent in these conversations (if there were Diplomatic phases in all turns it would add 90 to 120 minutes to the game-length). Players can altogether skip this part although I think that it adds a lot of interest in the game; as the mechanics are so fast I still think that the game can be easily played in around 2 hours.

I would like to know your opinions if you're so kind to try these rules.
